GOV. BALDWIN WATCHES THE STREET LABORERS

While the men were sweltering in track work, Governor Simeon E. Bald-win stood watching them for some win stood watching them for some third floor. Work will start at once time. He looked cool and fresh attirwife Elopes, Takes $600.

The police have been asked by George Caruso, a cook, of 74 State street, to find his wife, whom he says eloped from this city with another man, who left a wife and two children. When Mrs. Caruso departed all she left him, he says, was the furniture in their apartment. She took $600 in savings, an insurance book, his naturalization papers and in fact everything she could conveniently carry. At the time, he was in the New Haven hospital, undergoing an operation. He conducted a restaurant in State street, but his wife's departure forced him out of business.

WALLINGFORD

Inspected the manufacture of Mack brick to be used in the construction of Center street work. Eight car loads have been shipped and some twenty more are expected.

At the Country club Saturday the Waterbury golf team was entertained and defeated by local players score 8 to 3. At auction bridge the game being postponed from Friday, there were five tables and the awards went to Mrs. George M. Judd, Mrs. H. H. Bristol, Miss Helen Davis and Mrs. Balley.

It is announced at the public library that no fines will be exacted until the library is reopened after the renovations are completed.
